REPORTS, MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The property valuation of Wofford College is as follows:

Seventy-six acres of land, more or less	$140,000.00
Buildings	185.000.00
Library, Furniture and Apparatus	31,800.00
Endowment, June 1, 1909	120,013.71
Total	$476,813.71

The total enrollment for the present year to date is 348. In the college, 215; in the fitting school, 133. In classes of the college there are six graduate resident M. A. students, forty-seven seniors, fifty juniors, fifty-nine sophomores, and fifty-three freshmen.

In the two institutions there are fifteen who are preparing for the Christian ministry, and there are in attendance fourteen who are the sons of the Methodist preachers.

During the past summer a four-weeks' school for teachers was conducted by the faculty, assisted by members from the faculties of other institutions. The enrollment was 150, and it was a representative body of teachers from all parts of the State. It was highly successful in every respect.

There was also conducted a preachers' institute. There were 35 in attendance. Lectures were delivered by Bishop Atkins, Drs. Gross Alexander, J. M. Buckley, J. A. Kern, C. B. Waller, Mr. Way, and Mr. Hodges. Those in attendance were enthusiastic as to its benefits and were unanimous in the conviction that it should be continued. We have made a fine beginning upon which to build a great institution. An annual income of $800.00 will insure it for the future. The laymen have assumed the responsibility for the $800.00.

In 1854 Wofford College opened its doors. Mr. Bejamin Wofford, a Methodist preacher, furnished the material resources and equipment; the South Carolina Conference accepted the guardianship of this great trust and the high privilege of all further nourishing and support; William M. Wightman, Whitefoord Smith, David Duncan, Warren DuPre, A. H. Lester, and James H. Carlisle were the first to administer upon this educational trust. That was a noble band of men who consecrated themselves to their work.

Now fifty-five years have passed and on October 21, 1909, the last and the greatest of them all laid aside the earthly activities of his mission. James H. Carlisle was the wisest, the best, the greatest, and the most disinterested man we have ever known. He was the greatest educator the Southland ever produced. And in his death he has bequeathed to Wofford College as rich an endowment of spiritual values as was ever conferred on any institution of learning. He loved his Church and its institutions, and his life was the fruit of the truth and spirit for which it stands. James H. Carlisle was a man of the New Testament, the pattern of a man that the Church is ever striving to produce. We are glad and grateful for the life he lived, for the rare and rich services he rendered, for the grace, the beauty, and the power of his great-souled personality. He cannot die from us. His name and influence abide forever at Wofford, making the campus more precious than it ever was before. His last coherent words were directed to the trained nurse by his side, "You have a wide field of usefulness—a wide field of usefulness." As we stand here to-day and lift up our eyes toward that sacred hill of Christian learning made so by the lives of the great and the good, and as we contemplate the years and the centuries that are to make up the endless future, may we not pray and trust that God will bless Wofford College and give her a wide field of usefulness in leading many sons into the highest type of human life?

His children, Mr. James H. Carlisle, Jr., and Miss Sallie Carlisle, have donated his library and the most of the family's furniture in his study to the college. A room has been fitted up in the new Whitefoord Smith library building to represent as near as possible his study, so that old students and friends may recall the familiar and inspiring surroundings where he talked with them as only he could talk.

Mr. E. L. Archer, an unfailing friend of Wofford, has donated to the college $10,000. He desires that the new dormitory be called the Carlisle Memorial Hall. This seems to be eminently appropriate and fitting.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE.

The magnificent buildings of Columbia College were destroyed by fire September 9, 1909. After thorough investigation it was decided that the fire was caused by some defect in the electric wires of the building.

The buildings were insured for $75,000.00, and the furnishings for $10,500.00. The heating plant and water plant are still intact. Besides, we have brick and granite which were used in the original building. The insurance has been collected and the actual loss is a little more than $25,000.00. Plans and specifications have been accepted for the new buildings and the work of construction has been started. It is hoped that the new building will be ready for the opening in 1910.

The college is now operating in the Colonia Hotel, the old Columbia Female College. There are in attendance 260 students; 56 seniors, 43 juniors, 63 sophomores, and 57 freshmen, 14 subfreshmen, and 27 specials.

Brother P. A. Hodges, the financial agent, has secured subscriptions toward the rebuilding aggregating $34,032.39. We hope soon to see a new, a greater, and even a more beautiful college standing where the other lately stood.

LANDER COLLEGE.

Lander College reports the best opening in her history. There are 118 boarders and 47 day students. Several additional rooms had to be prepared in order to accommodate all who came.

Efforts have been made to secure the necessary funds for the erection of an additional dormitory, which is now sorely needed. Cash and subscriptions have been secured for the same aggregating $9,000.00.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

We endorse the Vanderbilt University, the Theological Department of the same, as well as the Correspondence School. There are at Vanderbilt 959 students—115 are students for the ministry, 101 are in the Theological School, and 8 are from the South Carolina Conference.

We endorse the effort of the General Board of Education to secure a 100,000 club, from which to raise $500,000 as an educational extension foundation.

CARLISLE FITTING SCHOOL.

The Carlisle Fitting School failed to open on last October. This property is worth $35,000.00. And we feel that it can be made to fill a large place in our educational system and we are glad to say that the Wofford board will hereafter assume a larger share in the management of the same, and that there is a prospect for an endowment that will put it on a solid basis.

COKESBURY CONFERENCE SCHOOL.

We have received no report from the Cokesbury Conference School, but we understand that it has opened and is in a good condition.

The assessment for educational extension is $2,515.00. We recommend an assessment of $11,500.00 for the next year for Wofford College, and that the trustees of Wofford be directed to appropriate from the proceeds of such assessment $1,000.00 for the Carlisle Fitting School, and that they arrange to reopen and manage the same.

In view of the great disaster at Columbia College, we recommend an assessment of $5,000.00.

We recommend to the Bishop to make the following appointments:

D. E. Camak, Instructor Southern Industrial Institute, Charlotte, N. C.

J. H. Graves, student, University of Chicago.

L. E. Wiggins, student of Vanderbilt University.

R. A. Child, agent of Wofford College.

L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday-school literature.

Geo. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute.

Jno. O. Willson, President of Lander College.

W. W. Daniel, President of Columbia College.

E. K. Hardin, Assistant Professor, Wofford College.

S. A. Nettles, Editor Southern Christian Advocate.

J. L. Ray, assistant to the publisher of the Southern Christian Advocate.

R. E. STACKHOUSE, Chairman

W. C. KIRKLAND, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

REPORT NO. 2.

We nominate Rev. S. A. Nettles, trustee of Lander College, vice J. D. Crout, resigned.

R. E. STACKHOUSE, Chairman.

W. C. KIRKLAND, Secretary.

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

One of the fixed and growing institutions of South Carolina Methodism is the Epworth Orphanage, which was wisely located just outside the incorporate limits of the city of Columbia. From the very first our people have been pleased to have such an institution. It was established to meet a great and growing need, and has been the special work of our Church, which has forcefully appealed to the spirit of benevolence in our Methodism in the State. We acknowledge with gratitude the mercies and blessings of God which have brought to us another year of success at this institution. While we have not been able to do all that was in our hearts, and while we have had some reverses during the year, still we bring to you in our annual report words of encouragement and good cheer.

Each year the enrollment of inmates increases in number and the necessary expenses to provide for them naturally has a corresponding growth. This year another factor entered into the matter of expense, namely, the advance in the prices of provisions, This we would have felt more had it not been for the provisions grown on the small farm and garden belonging to the Home.

With the increase in cost of living, however, the management has been able, as for the past seven years, to run the business of the institution on a cash basis, thereby getting the best possible advantage in making all purchases. The increase in the cost of caring for the Orphanage is met by an ever-increasing interest in our work on the part of the Church.

There is an improvement in the financial condition of the Home since the last report. Our people have, to a considerable extent, become acquainted with the special plan of support, and occasionally some individual or Sunday-school volunteers the support of an orphan for a year by giving the amount required, either monthly or all at one time. The pledges for support, made and paid, together with the miscellaneous gifts which come to us, keep the Home in credit and free from debt. There is still room, however, for improvement, which we believe will come as the circumstances demand

We report the admission of forty-five children into the Orphanage during the year and thirty gone out. Three finished the course of study in the Orphanage graded school last June. Two of these, by the help of relatives and friends, are in college, and the other is taking a business course. Seven of those who went out from the Home accepted positions, two died, and the others were returned to relatives. The inmates enrolled now number 185.

BEQUESTS.

In the will of Mrs. Dr. S. A. Weber, deceased, a bequest was made to the Epworth Orphanage of two thousand dollars in money, and one-half interest in house and lot in the town of Yorkville. The interest of the Orphanage in this house and lot is worth two thousand and two hundred and fifty dollars, as it has been sold for twice this amount. The executor of the will, W. W. Lewis, Esq., has all funds in his hands and will give direction to them according to the terms of the will. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, of Timmonsville, bequeathed to the Orphanage two hundred and fifty dollars.

FARM.

The crops on the farm this year have been very good. The lands are being improved each year by home-made and commercial fertilizers and proper cultivation, and the results are gratifying. A splendid corn crop, amounting to a thousand bushels or more, was made this year on the two-horse farm, but we had the misfortune to lose nearly all of it by fire in a few days after it was housed, by the burning of the barn, which caught on fire in some unknown way. Other field and vegetable crops have been good. Texas fever among our cattle caused the death of seven head before it could be arrested.

INDUSTRIES.

The marble yard and printing offices are still parts of our industrial work. These, as usual, have done more than pay their running expenses. In these departments a number of boys are trained during the work hours, and are learning a trade by which they can easily provide a livelihood when they go out from the Orphanage to make their way in the world.

BUILDING.

During the year the already large George Holmes industrial building has been added to by erecting a two-story annex 40x28 feet. This building now furnishes abundant room for a considerable mechanical plant when it is decided what that plant shall be, and when the means are in hand to install it. The usual repair and cleansing work has been done about the Orphanage in addition to the enlargement of the industrial building. We are pleased to announce here that our good friend. Mr. George W. Williams, of Charleston, has kindly offered the means with which to build another home on the Epworth Orphanage campus.

The last home that was erected here was the gift of Mr. Williams and was given in the memory of his mother. The one he now offers us is to be erected in memory of his father. The offer has been accepted with gratitude, and the placing of the material for the house will soon begin.

SCHOOL.

The Epworth Orphanage graded school, of ten grades, is still and will ever be an important factor in the training and preparation of the children here under the care of our Church for the duties and responsibilities of the life that is before them. The number of children is now so large that it has become necessary to teach some grades in the morning and some in the afternoon. Prof. H. Z. Nabors with his assistants, Misses Anderson, Waddell and Wharton, has charge of the school work, and they are doing this work well.

RELIGIOUS.

The religious advantages given the children here are such as to develop them along spiritual lines and to lead them into the conscious knowledge of the saving grace of Christ. As a result of the revival services during the year more than fifty of the children united with the Church. About all of the children here, who are old enough, are now members of the Church.

HEALTH.

The health of the children has been very good, although there were two cases of serious sickness, resulting in the death of Bessie Bullock and Clyde Grossett. Both of these children seemed to have had weak constitutions. Dr. L. K. Philpot continues his services, gratis, as Orphanage physician.

The Lord has been gracious to the family of orphans at Epworth, and to all those who have watched over them another year, and we gratefully acknowledge all of His mercies and blessings.

Under the economical administration of our excellent superintendent the Orphanage has not only been able to meet all its current expenses out of its regular collections and bequests, but also to set aside various sums from time to time that were not immediately needed for the support of the Orphanage family. These funds have been carefully invested as they have accumulated and now amount to $35,235.00.

The board has set aside this fund as a permanent endowment, the income of which is to be used in making repairs upon the buildings, paying insurance premiums, and other incidental expenses, thus relieving the support fund of these burdens. The board hopes by careful and economical management to gradually increase this endowment until the income therefrom will also pay the salaries of the officers and employees of the institution.

The board has re-elected Rev. W. B. Wharton to the position of superintendent of the Orphanage, and respectfully requests the Bishop to appoint him to that position.

E. H. EHRLICH, President.

W. J. MURRAY, Secretary.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Your board is pleased to report a continued standard of excellence in the publication of our Conference organ. The subscription list is not quite so large as when the last report was made. This is due, we believe, to failure to promptly renew subscriptions. We would urge upon our preachers the great necessity for securing prompt renewals of all subscriptions and increasing the number, if we shall hope to maintain the dollar subscription rate, and the continuance of a high standard.

The present board of managers was re-elected at the last Annual Conference to serve for the next four years. They have reorganized with the election of Rev. W. P. Meadors as chairman, and J. W. Hamel as secretary. They have also re-elected Rev. S. A. Nettles editor and publisher of the Advocate for the next four years, and request that the board of education confirm their action in the recommendation of Brother Nettles to this Conference for election as editor of the Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. MEADORS, Chairman.

J. W. HAMEL, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee, after careful inquiry into the interests entrusted to its care, beg leave to make the following report:

It is with pleasure that we note the fact that our Church periodicals have maintained the high standard of excellence that has characterized them in past years, and that they are furnishing our people with a wholesome, educating literature. There is an improvement in many respects upon the past, and the aims of those entrusted with these interests indicate still better things for the future.

We commend most heartily to our people our Church literature as embodied in the Southern Christian Advocate, the Methodist Quarterly Review, the Christian Advocate, Go Forward, and the Epworth Era. A campaign of education in every phase of Church work is on, and these publications are no small factor in the successful issue of this campaign. No real progress in the Church can be hoped for that does not grow out of the intelligent sympathy and co-operation of the rank and file of our membership, and nothing is more conducive to such general intelligence than the thorough dissemination of our Church literature.

Therefore, we earnestly exhort every pastor to give careful attention to this feature of the work entrusted to his care. A committee in each church to look after the interests of the Christian Advocate, The Methodist Review, and Go Forward will result, we are sure, in an increased circulation for these periodicals.

The Southern Christian Advocate, our Conference organ, has been called rightly the assistant pastor in every charge, and as such it should go into every Methodist home. We are sorry to note that there has been a slight decrease in its circulation, due to the failure of some pastors to look promptly after renewals. This interest is too important a work to be left solely in the hands of a committee, but it should receive the careful personal attention of the pastor at all times.

Your committee would also commend to those pastors unacquainted with the work Bruce's Training of the Twelve, a book rich in inspiring and suggestive thought, which can be secured from our publishing house at Nashville, Tenn.

Again do we call upon the strong men of our Conference to contribute to the Southern Christian Advocate such articles as will relieve the editor of the necessity of filling the paper with inferior articles from other sources. Those of our preachers and people who can write owe the editor this co-operation and help.

P. B. WELLS, Chairman.

J. R. T. MAJOR, Secretary.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

REPORT No. 1.

The Sunday-school Board desires to submit the following resolution as its first report:

Whereas, The work of the Sunday-schools is advancing, and needs all the trained teachers possible and all means to train them; and

Whereas, There is a great work to do in enlisting all the schools in an advance movement and each school to be brought to a greater efficiency; and

Whereas, We believe the time has come for a distinct and radical step in this work, and that it can be taken now:

THEREFORE RESOLVED, That a Conference Sunday School Secretary be put in the field and that an amount equivalent to one per cent. of pastors' salaries be levied to support this work.

D. M. McLEOD, Secretary.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

REPORT NO. 2.

It is with pleasure that this board reports progress during the year 1909 in the Sunday-school work. There has been a more general observance of Children's Day and a larger collection than in 1908. This day, however, does not receive the attention that it deserves, and it is again most earnestly commended to the attention of preachers and superintendents.

The need of proper literature for the schools is being met by our Sunday-school department at Nashville, and all will learn with pleasure that there is a gratifying increase in circulation of papers, magazines and quarterlies. "The Visitor" and "Boys and Girls" are especially to be noticed, as they meet an especial requirement; "Boys and Girls" being the new paper prepared for the little folks.

The board urges the organization of adult Bible classes. Special literature is prepared for the use of such classes and their organization and work will be found wonderfully helpful to school and church. In very many schools such classes have already been organized and their work commends this movement to others.

There is need for better reports from the schools that the board may be able to more efficiently aid in the work. A blank form of report has been prepared for the whole Church and this form will be sent during the year to the presiding elders, who will be asked to aid the board in obtaining the information needed.

A district Sunday-school Conference has been provided for by law, found in paragraph 243 of the Discipline. This will prove a source of help and inspiration to better work if used. It is a pleasure to know that in the Anderson district such an institute has been held each year for the past four years. It has been an enjoyable and helpful work and the brethren there are to be congratulated upon this work.

The amount given by this Conference to the endowment of the chair in Vanderbilt has not been large. This is a most worthy enterprise, and it is hoped the Children's Day collections will so increase that we may be able to do a rightful part of this work.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The Epworth League Board asks to submit the following report:

The League is the training school of the local Church. It trains in purely spiritual exercises, it trains in practical Christian service, it trains in social and literary things, and it trains missionary thought and activity.

The League means consecrated personality. Personality is the greatest force in the universe. Back of all things is the divine personality, manifested in a thousand forms of creation. All material things receive their values from personalities and personal associations. Personality is the mighty force in intellectual things. We are in the grip of the world's thinkers—the world's great personalities. We read our books and receive our inspirations and our lives receive their currents. Every great movement, every great reformation, every great achievement has been the result of a great personality. This is also true in the spiritual realm. The great prophets, the disciples of Jesus, and the other spiritual men and women who have lived before us mold our lives and characters. Jesus said to His disciples: "Ye that have been with me in this regeneration shall sit upon twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel." Indeed, those men are on thrones of power and influence. They dominate our lives and control our theological views. God's greatest revelations are made through personalities. Our greatest investment is in personality and here lies our chief possession.

We render our services by personality and to personality. The Epworth League affords the atmosphere in which the highest type of consecrated personality may be developed.

We note with deep regret that many of the charges in our Conference do not report Leagues. We sincerely trust the ensuing year will mark a great forward movement in League activity in our Conference.

Respectfully, WATSON B. DUNCAN,
Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

To the South Carolina Annual Conference Assembled in Abbeville, S. C.:

Your committee on Sabbath Observance beg leave to submit the following report:

The Sabbath is of divine origin and authority and not simply a mere holiday. It is the basis of Christian civilization and progress, and found a very conspicuous place in the foundation of the Jewish nation. Those nations and peoples who observe it are the most aggressive and prosperous. Jesus declares that it was made for man and not man for it. We should remember that this holy day is a civil institution imbedded in our law as a conservation of public morals and conducive to public order, is a physical as well as a spiritual necessity, has a claim upon each individual conscience, and that every man has the right to the enjoyment of all its Christian privileges.

This is a Christian land, this is a Christian State, but we deplore the fact that a great many of our citizenship seem to have no regard for this divine institution, but desecrate it by unnecessary work, by patronizing Sunday news and cigar stands, soda founts, Sunday excursions, pleasure ridings, etc. We also deplore the fact that some of our Church members do these same things, thereby undermining the basis of our government, Church and religious conscience. Surely no minister of the Gospel—an example unto the people and a representative of Jesus Christ—would do these things.

We heartily endorse the work of the Sunday League of America, and note with pleasure the good work done in our midst during the year by Dr. Edward Thomson.

We recommend and urge that a sermon on this subject be preached in all of our pulpits some time during the early spring, and that the members of this Conference, both by precept and example, "remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy."

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. WHARTON,
Chairman.

O. M. ABNEY, Secretary.

ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee on temperance begs leave to submit the following report:

1. The Methodist Church has always taken high ground upon the temperance question. She has always stood like a mighty bulwark in opposition to the use and sale of alcoholic beverages—she has always maintained that the use and sale of alcoholic beverages was opposed to Christianity and good government; that ideal citizenship would never prevail until the government under which we live outlawed the whole traffic. We desire again to place our Church upon record as to this question, and to declare in the most positive terms her opposition to the alcohol traffic in all its forms and phases.

2. In our judgment the time has come for our membership not only to preach and pray against the traffic, but to use government agencies for its suppression and destruction. It is all very well to preach and pray, but these things will never accomplish the end in view, unless we use the practical means at our hands. The professing Christians of South Carolina are in the majority and they can enact and enforce any laws which they deem wise for the suppression of evil and the building up of morality and Christianity. Believing this and believing that prohibitory laws as to the sale of alcoholic spirits are in the interest of morality, Christianity, and good government, we unhesitatingly place our Church upon record as favoring such laws and call upon our people to support and uphold the same.

3. We rejoice in, and give thanks to Almighty God for, the victories which prohibition has recently won in our beloved State. We desire, however, to call the attention of our people to the fact that the greatest fight of all is yet ahead of us. Prohibitory laws will prove a success only in so far as they are enforced. The laws will not enforce themselves, nor do we believe that in certain localities they can or will be enforced to the degree that they ought to be enforced, by the local authorities. The best enforcer of law and order is a healthy public sentiment on the part of our Christian people and a combined, determined effort on their part, as individuals, to aid in the enforcement of the same. We therefore call upon the membership of our Church to band themselves together and co-operate with the civil authorities in the enforcement of law and order. The territory that we have gained and the victories that we have already won will prove of no avail, unless we enforce the laws, and thus demonstrate, practically, their wisdom.

Again we call attention to the fact that our fight in the future must be centered about the enforcement of our prohibitory laws.

4. In this connection we wish to most heartily commend and endorse the Anti-Saloon League, and the work that it has done and is still doing in this State, through its superintendent. We desire to emphasize the fact that this League is non-political in its organization and conception. It is controlled and officered by the representatives of the Christian Churches and its sole object is, by proper agitation, to bring about the enactment of rational, conservative, and sound prohibitory laws, and to aid in the enforcement thereof. We call upon our people to stand by and aid the League in its fight against evil. We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. L. Harley by the Bishop as the superintendent of the League in this State.

5. In our judgment the time has come for the enactment of a State-wide prohibitory law. Our Church has always favored local option as a means to an end. We have always believed it was wise to accept half a loaf when we could not get the whole, but we do not believe that local option is a sound governmental policy when applied to a business or traffic which is inherently wrong and which in its tendencies is destructive of Christianity, morality, and a sober, God-fearing citizenship. Our Christian people have, at the ballot box, said in unmistakable terms that the sale of whiskey will not be tolerated in thirty-six of the forty-two counties of this State. The sale of alcoholic beverages in the six counties is a menace to the contiguous dry territory; and as we view the situation, wisdom and the law of self-preservation demand that the whole State be made dry by legislative enactment. And we call upon our people to work and pray for the accomplishment of this end.

6. We desire to enter our most respectful protest against the whiskey advertisements which are constantly appearing in our newspapers in this State. Our lawmaking body has declared that it is unlawful to solicit orders for whiskey in dry territory, and yet some of our newspapers are permitting the most glaring advertisements and sending them into the dry counties, thus indirectly, at least, violating the spirit if not the letter of the law against this practice. We repeat, we enter our most earnest protest. And may God pour out His richest blessings upon us in all our efforts to diminish evil and bring about the "coming of His kingdom."

C. C. FEATHERSTONE,
Chairman.

S. O. CANTEY, Secretary.

BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

The Bible Society Board of the Conference presents the following statement of reports presented by the preachers in charge, the number not reporting, and the amounts contributed to the American Bible Society:

DISTRICTS.	Rep'ts Presented.	Not Reporting.	Amounts Contributed.
Anderson	11	9	$ 38.33
Charleston	19	2	120.06
Cokesbury	10	8	31.00
Columbia	16	7	70.78
Florence	15	5	78.82
Greenville	12	8	51.85
Kingstree	12	7	58.27
Marion	15	7	78.84
Orangeburg	11	6	52.63
Rock Hill	9	9	41.52
Spartanburg	20	5	71.60
Sumter	12	6	58.45
Total	162	79	$752.25

The summary, as compared with that of the last year, shows an increase of six in the reports presented, and of $29.78 in the amount contributed. It will be noted that one-third of the preachers in charge have made no reports.

The board had hoped that the claims of the cause which it represents would this year have received large recognition, and that the amount contributed to the American Bible Society by the Methodists of South Carolina would have reached at least one thousand dollars. Especially at this time, when, as never before, not only emphasis, but also enthusiastic assent is being given to the obligation and the privilege of the Church to conquer the world for Christ, it seems an anomaly that the needs of its great auxiliary in the enterprise should, by so many, be overlooked or disregarded. The American Bible Society is the armory on which our missionaries, especially those in foreign lands, are dependent for their one weapon, indispensable and effective, the sword of the spirit. An army for conquest may be raised and supported, but unless provision is made for an adequately furnished ordnance department its march into hostile territory would invite only defeat and failure.

The board expresses the hope that at the next session of the Conference—the close of its quadrennium of service—it may have the privilege of presenting such a report as will indicate the awakened or increased interest of the preachers and the people in the great and essential work of the American Bible Society.

The number of volumes distributed by the American Bible Society during the year included in its last report reached the total of 2,062,314. Of these 1,120,805 volumes, in about 65 different languages, were distributed in the Western Hemisphere, and 941,509 in the Eastern Hemisphere. The distribution in the South Atlantic agency has increased from about 12,000 volumes, two years ago, to more than 70,000 the present year, in nearly forty different languages. The board refers with pleasure to the report to the Conference of the agency secretary, Rev. M. B. Porter, and to his earnest address, and hopes that the preachers will avail themselves of his expressed desire to co-operate with them, in every way possible, in Bible work. Remittances to the American Bible Society may be made through him at Richmond, Va., the headquarters of the agency.

The gift to the American Bible Society by Mrs. Russell Sage, of a half-million dollars, conditioned on the raising by the end of the year of an equal amount by the society, the managers are hopeful will be realized. To aid in securing this amount the action of the Conference has been asked, and the board, in concluding its report, requests the adoption by the Conference of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the amounts contributed this year to the American Bible Society by the charges of the South Carolina Conference may be used by the board of managers of that society towards meeting the requirements of the Mrs. Russell Sage endowment.

Resolved, That the Conference pledge to the society, for the same purpose, the raising of an at least equal amount the coming year.

VIRGIL C. DIBBLE,
Chairman.

S. W. HENRY, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

Your committee on District Conference journals beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the various records and find them neatly and correctly kept. Some of them are models.

Respectfully, WATSON B. DUNCAN,
Chairman.

REPORT ON MINUTES.

The Committee on Minutes present for adoption the following report:

We recommend that $1,200.00 be assessed upon the Conference for the year 1910 for the publication of our Minutes, and that $100.00 of this amount be allowed for the general expenses of the secretary

We recommend further that 7,000 copies of the Minutes be published.

We nominate E. O. Watson and R. E. Turnipseed as editors for the present year.

J. C. YONGUE, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

REPORT No. 1.

Your board has heard with interest in its regular session Dr. W. F. McMurry, our general secretary, and are greatly gratified with the great progress in church extension work.

We would heartily endorse the great movement of the general board in planning the Washington city church, thus placing in our national capital a church which adequately represents our Methodism.

Acting upon a suggestion of our general secretary, it shall be the policy of your Conference board after this session to make some loans out of the collections made each year; properly securing such loans through the general board, which board shall have in keeping all papers.

We urge each presiding elder to call the attention of each pastor in his district to the fact that the birthday offerings from the Sunday-schools after April 1, 1910, will be applied to a Sunday-school loan fund, instead of Oklahoma, as heretofore.

Believing thoroughly in the connectional idea of our great Church, we would call attention to the large possibilities in the organization of district boards of church extension, and urge the same upon each presiding elder,

In order to bring the needs of the church extension more prominently before the Church, the following resolution was adopted by the board:

Resolved, That whereas, the chairman of the Conference board of church extension will appoint some one from each district to represent the cause of church extension before the District Conference this year, that the presiding elders be and are hereby requested to give such representative a suitable hour for this purpose at their respective conferences.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The work of the Church of God moves steadily forward. There are signs of victory on every hand. No time in the past has there been so much interest in the evangelization of the whole world. The collections for missions may have fallen behind in some places, but the spirit of missions is deepening in every place. Indeed, we are facing a new era in missions. No longer do we come with the sentimental utterances common a generation ago, but with the plain, business proposition of doing a specific work.

The laymen's movement throughout the world has transformed missionary operations. The Church owes much to this movement, for its enlarged opportunities; and it gives us pleasure to most heartily commend the Laymen's Missionary Movement in our own Conference.

We need not compliment ourselves and content ourselves with the thought that our work is done. It is not. We are but entering upon that slow and oft-times difficult process of education, a work that must be accomplished before we can hope for complete victory.

We have not only "The Go Forward," a most excellent missionary monthly, brim full of and bristling with missionary information, and at the small cost of twenty-five cents per year, but we have at the head of our missionary educational department a man, a master in his work, Dr. Ed. F. Cook, Nashville, Tenn., who stands ready with material in hand to give all assistance necessary for a church to be instructed on the subject of missions.

The labors of the last year have not been without results. We cannot measure the moral and spiritual influences of the many hundreds of consecrated men and women at home and abroad who have labored in the mission fields, but we can count figures.

Up to the close of the fiscal year, March 31, last, we had raised in the whole Church the sum of $831,997.86, the largest yet realized in the history of our Church, and an increase over last year of $65,281.24. During the intervening months a sum sufficient to raise the total contributions of the Church to more than $1,000,000.00 has been secured.

Within our own Conference we note the following conditions: Raised for foreign missions, $20,745.08; domestic missions, $17,941.40; Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, $16,987.97; Woman's Home Missionary Society, $2,550.37; specials, $6,294.95; giving us the grand total of $64,519.79.

Nine of the twelve presiding elders' districts and two hundred of the pastoral charges paid assessments in full for both foreign and domestic missions. There was a net gain of 1,144 members in the 77 pastoral charges aided by this board during the past year.

The domestic missionaries have been paid one hundred cents on the dollar.

For the ensuing year 88 charges have been granted appropriations and an assessment of eighteen ($18,000.00) thousand dollars has been ordered made upon the Conference.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments:

Conference Missionary Secretary, R. L. Holroyd; assistant to the Secretary, H. B. Browne.

C. C. HERBERT, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

The Woman's Home Mission Society, South Carolina Conference is more strongly intrenched in the hearts of the people of South Carolina and is established on a firmer basis than ever before in its history.

We note with pleasure the enlargement in every department of work. Our women seem to find joy in ministering to the needs of the destitute, and joy in service always develops one's better nature.

The statistical report shows ninety-three auxiliaries with a membership of 2,415. Our Homes is taken by 373 women and there are 272 who realize that "the tenth is the Lord's." Six boxes of supplies have been sent to the Orphanage. Numbers of visits have been made to corrective institutions and to the sick, the needy, and the strangers.

The Conference Treasurer has received for connectional work $2,405.30, while $2,550.37 has been spent locally. These figures may be small when we think of the number of Methodist women in our State who are not identified with this great movement; and we deplore their lack of co-operation, not only for the work's sake, but for their own sakes.

Donations to two parsonages were made at our annual meeting in Sumter, and two others are pending, awaiting compliance with required conditions.

MRS. DAVID N. BOURNE,
Corresponding Secretary, South Carolina Conference Society.

BISHOP SETH WARD.

By Rev. Mark L. Carlisle, D. D.

In the death of Bishop Ward the Church has lost one of her strong and growing men. He had just a little passed the half-century in years, but was still developing the powers of mind and heart. He grew slowly but steadily, and did not stop, as many men do, at middle life.

Bishop Ward came into the eye of the Church at the General Conference, at Dallas, in 1902, when he was elected Assistant Secretary of the Board of Missions. Before that time he had made a large place for himself in Texas Methodism. Very soon the excellent traits of his character began to be known in a wide circle. Simple, strong and direct, he took up the varied duties of his office, and in the four years of his service, before he was elected Bishop in 1906, at Birmingham, he proved of great value to the Board of Missions, and made a name for himself throughout the Church. His election to the Episcopal office was somewhat of a surprise, but the General Conference made no mistake. He brought to the chief superintendency the same strong qualities of mind and heart that had been shown elsewhere. Modestly, almost timidly, he assumed his new duties, but, as he went about and the Church at large came to know the clearness of his judgment and the beauty of his character, there was a growing feeling of security and satisfaction that the affairs of the Church were in such hands. There was a dignity and directness coupled with unassuming modesty that showed the strong, well-balanced man. The Board of Missions trusted him with matters requiring the coolest and clearest judgment, and his management of affairs was always satisfactory.

As a preacher Bishop Ward was clear and strong. He did not always preach great sermons, but they were always clear and effective. One who heard him at Wofford College, in 1907, predicted for him a great place in the records of the Church. But God had a greater place for him and has called him to it. We lost his strength and purity, but who shall say to what larger service he devotes them now?

The personal side of Bishop Ward was most attractive. It was my privilege to be with him a good deal during the seven years of our acquaintance. He was always the same. In his home or in mine, on the cars, at Conference, and at the meetings of the Board of Missions, in every place he showed the same gentle, cordial friendliness. And we saw yet more. There was the clear-eyed and pure-hearted man of God, meeting and associating with his brethren. Clear judgment, high thought, strong convictions, quaint and quiet humor, tender affectionateness, all were lighted and glorified by living faith and love toward a living and loving Lord. He met the honors and duties of the episcopacy as he met everything else, with simple faith in God, believing not in himself, but in Him who has promised to be with His people "always, even unto the end."

Our sympathies go out to the bereaved wife and fatherless children. Feeling how great is the loss of the Church, we know theirs to be inexpressibly greater. Upon them we invoke the tender blessings of our Father, who is "The God of all comfort."

BISHOP CHARLES BETTS GALLOWAY, D. D., LL. D.

By Rev. John O. Willson, D. D.

On May 12, 1909, there fell on sleep one of the ablest, most attractive, and most useful of the bishops of Methodism. In his palmy days he was as handsome as George F. Pierce, as sweet voiced as William Capers, as eloquent as Henry Bascom, as earnest as Enoch M. Marvin. Mississippi, his native State, almost adored him, Southern Methodism loved him greatly, American Methodism gave him a brother's deep affection. Ecumenical Methodism admired him wonderfully, and all Christendom that knew him honored him as a master Christian. Old and young, saints and sinners, believers and unbelievers, were attracted to this leader in the Church of God and this master workman in all good causes. Though his failing health had been known for years and the increasing ravages of disease for months, yet when the wires flashed the tidings of his triumph over death, the mourning swept around the world, and the mourners were of all ages and of all races. Death is worth dying, even on its earthly side, when such an one as Charles Betts Galloway grapples with "the last enemy of mankind."

Bishop Galloway was born at Kosciusko, Mississippi, September 1, 1849. He was well born—descended from a noble ancestry. His father was Dr. C. B. Galloway. South Carolinians will remember that the blood of the glorified Rev. Charles Betts, of this Conference, flowed in his veins, and that he bore the name of that faithful Methodist preacher. In 1865 he entered the University of Mississippi, and was graduated in 1868. He was admitted into the Mississippi Conference in 1869, and rapidly advanced in its service.

During an epidemic of yellow fever in the Southwest, that pestilence invaded his pastorate. Of course he remained at his post and ministered to the dying and sorrowing. At last he himself was stricken with a malignant type of the dread disease and he came so near to death that the newspapers reported him dead, and columns on columns were printed in praise of the gifted and devoted young preacher. On recovery, he had the rare privilege of reading his obituaries and of seeing what men thought of him. Did he read the wide scattered words of good men when his eyes really closed in the long, long sleep of death? Did he then hear the weeping that began with his dying sigh and still is not hushed?

In 1886 he was elected a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the second chosen in that splendid quartette: William Wallace Duncan, Charles Betts Galloway, Eugene R. Hendrix, Joseph T. Key. At the time of his election he was editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, the Conference organ of the Methodists of Louisiana and Mississippi. We have had a glorius company in our bishops, but no one was more faithful, more industrious, more useful, more popular than Bishop Galloway. In the home land and abroad, in our foreign missions and the isles of the sea, it was a glad day when he came to serve as chief servant of the Church of God. His eloquent sermons and magnificent addresses commanded admiration and moved hearts towards God; his patient sympathy made hardships easier; his courtesy and kindness made impossible anything like acrimony in debates before him, or anything like resentment over decisions in his presidency.

He was often called upon for service outside of his own Church, and everywhere he went men recognized a great and good man, heard a marvelous speaker with delight, and loved a brave and brotherly spirit. His sermon at the opening of the Ecumenical Conference in London, September, 1901, is remembered around the world, as is also his exquisite address, "as a Mississippian, of whose State Jefferson Davis was a citizen," when the news came to that Conf rence that President McKinley had been shot by an assassin. His addresses on Jefferson Davis and Lucius Q. C. Lamar will be classics for many a day. His leadership of the cause of temperance in Mississippi and the incident in it of his controversy with President Jefferson Davis cannot be forgotten. He published several books, among them "The Life of Linus Parker," "Circuit of the Globe," "Missions," and "Methodism, a Child of Providence." They are all able, marked by his characteristic charm. But the pulpit and platform were his thrones of power. There he was at his best—an orator among orators.

But time fails to tell of this minister of God and leader of men. He was much honored. Degrees were eagerly given him—some from Northern institutions—none so far as the writer can recall from schools of our Church. It was not that our colleges were unwilling, but others got before them. Better than all these things, common and uncommon men owned him as a master mind and a master doer.

He was married on his birthday, in 1871, to Miss Harriet E. Willis, who, with two sons and three daughters, survives him. Missed as he is in all our Southland, there the vacancy is largest; loved as he is everywhere he is known, there the wealth of love is immeasurable, boundless, eternal.

He is gone from us. No more will we see the flashing eye that spoke as loudly as the tongue of gold. No more will we feel that subtle thrill, by which a lofty spirit speaks to all that can hear. We will remember the life and all its messages—but he is gone from us. In the city above a glorified form moves among the redeemed, a brother clasps hands with those who share with him a Father's house of many mansions, a child of God has heard from life divine: "Well done, good and faithful servant." May we all join him in the land of everlasting life.

REV. JOHN ALEXANDER PORTER.

By Rev. Wm. C. Power, D. D.

One by one the old men of the South Carolina Conference are passing away. Besides this writer there is only one left of those who were members of the body when he joined, in November, 1857.

The great leaders of the Conference of that day, William M. Wightman, Whitefoord Smith, Hartwell Spain, Albert M. Ship, Nicholas Talley, William A. Gamewell, James Stacey, Charles Betts, Hugh A. C. Walker, Robert J. Boyd, William A. McSwain, William Martin, William G. Connor, Hilliard C. Parsons, Dennis J. Simmons, William H. Fleming, William P. Mouzon, Abraham Neules, Henry M. Mood, Abel M. Chreitzberg, John W. Kelly, John A. Porter—then the strong men of later times—Samuel Barkesdale Jones, F. Milton Kennedy, Osgood A. Darby, Samuel Lander, John M. Carlisle, A. Coke Smith, W. Wallace Duncan, W. Davies Kirkland, Marion Boyd, Andrew J. Stokes, James B. Campbell, Andrew Jackson Cauthen, Thomas G. Herbert, Jesse A. Clifton, and scores on scores of brethren just as good—yet not so great, perhaps—measured by human standards—are gone—all gone from us; and we who are still aliwe will ere long, or later on, answer for the last time our annual Conference roll call.

Even now as I look out upon the personnel of this body, I am well nigh startled by the changes time has wrought upon many of the brethren; brethren who but a few short years agone, in the prime of young manhood, with symmetry of form, buoyancy of spirit and elasticity of step, were beginning the ascent to life's alluring crest, have already passed to the other side, and now, with whitened locks, furrowed cheeks, drooped shoulders, shrunken limbs and ominous lag of movement, are going adown the decline toward the closing scene in life's momentous drama.

These somewhat sober reflections have been inspired by the task the committees on memoirs assigned me, and are given expression here in the hope that they may move all of us, older and younger, to value more highly than has been our wont, perhaps, the opportunities afforded us for making life a success, to be rewarded at its close by an abundant entrance into the eternal joys of the life to come.

Now to the particular task assigned me:

Rev. John Alexander Porter was born in the City of New York, February 7, 1822, and in his boyhood came to Charleston, S. C.

Nothing is known of his youthful days by the author of this tribute. He entered business in Charleston as a clerk in early manhood, and such was his courteous manner, his unswerving integrity, and his punctilious discharge of duty that he won the abiding confidence of his employers. He was of sturdy Irish stock, with a frame symmetrical and closely knit, of manly port and dignified mien, conspicuously neat in his dress, always evincing good taste and strict observance of the nicer proprieties in this regard; a very model—worthy the imitation of our young brethren of the ministry.

The mould of brother Porter's mind, like that of his body, was symmetrical, and was characterized by strength of fiber rather than by the more elegant gifts of genius; and yet by the study of lofty ideals, close application and persistent grapple with the problems of life, of duty and of destiny, he developed not only a mental force far above the ordinary, but acquired a style of remarkable accuracy and a high order of finish.

In this regard his written and spoken productions furnished a lesson of encouragement to those of our young brethren who, like brother Porter, have not had the advantage of a collegiate education and the usual facilities for intellectual culture.

In his social aptitudes he was naturally reserved, making the impression on the more sensitive of his brethren that he was cold, stiff and unsympathetic. And, while it must be admitted that his failure to correct this particular trend of his social life was a source of regret to those who knew him best, yet it were better thus than to indulge in the unguarded levity of spirit and laxity of conduct which sometimes results in largely neutralizing a well-meaning brother's influence for good; a peril to which the ambassador of the Lord Jesus Christ should assiduously guard against.

In brother Porter's religious nature there reigned an imperious sense of duty, which refused to be balked by anything short of providential interference. He, like other men, sometimes made mistakes, but, until convinced that he was in error, he clung to his convictions with unyielding grip. He unquestionably had in his composition, in large measure, the stuff out of which martyrs are made.

As a preacher he was one of our very best. Never entering the sacred desk without thorough preparation, he seldom, if ever, made a failure. Not given to flights of oratory, he was sound in doctrine, eminently instructive, and sometimes, though seldom, overwhelming in the pathos that stirs and moves man's spiritual energies. And while his pulpit efforts—the best of them—did not charm the giddy throng, the writer of this tribute has heard thoughtful men say, if they were allowed to choose a preacher for life they would prefer John A. Porter to any other known to them.

The writer heard him preach a sermon at the session of our Annual Conference held in Charleston in 1858, from the text: "Their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges:" Deut., 32, 31., and though fifty-one years, with their burdened records, have passed since then, the trend of that sermon has lingered in his thought to this day.

Twenty or more years ago he preached the commencement sermon at Wofford College, from the text: "David, when he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep," Acts 13-36.

The sermon was utterly insocent of moonbeams and odorless flowers and tremulous warbles of poesy and song. It was plain, instructive, practical and profoundly spiritual. (It was a lesson which some preachers of commencement sermons would do well to learn.)

Doctor Deems, pastor of the Church of the Strangers, in New York, who was there to make the literary address, pronounced the effort the best commencement sermon he had ever heard.

There were comparatively few men who were drawn into intimate companionship with John A. Porter. There are fewer still who urged their way into the guarded precincts of his inner life, but those who were so fortunate as to gain an entrance there felt the genuine throb of a brother's heart, and found the unswerving loyalty of a consecrated soul.

Summing up the whole account, we are led to wish that the Christian Ministry, the Christian Church and a redeemed world had more of his kind.

REV. ELI MURKERSON McKISSICK.

By Rev. W. A. Fairey.

Year by year the number of those who cross the flood is encreasing, and soon the majority of our beloved will gather on the other shore. God's messenger has been choice this year in the s lection of Reverned Eli M. McKissick. We miss him much, because we loved him much. But we shall not grieve for him. He needs not our sympathy nor our tears; while we die daily he is alive forevermore.

The Reverened Eli Murkerson McKissick, son of Eli McKissick and Clarsey McKissick, was born in Florence County, S. C., June 20, 1852, and died very suddenly at the parsonage in Cades, on the evening of February 14, 1909. In early life he was soundly converted to God, and felt divinely called to the work of the ministry.

Brother McKissick first entered the ministry of the Methodist Protestant Church, and after eight years of faithful service in that Church he was received into the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the session held in Darlington, S. C., in December, 1891. His ministry was spent on circuits and missions. In all of these fields his labors were blessed of God in the salvation of souls. He was a good preacher, preaching always a plain and simple gospel, which went straight home to the hearts of his hearers. The result which sometimes attended his preaching were truly wonderful. Brother McKissick was not ambitious for worldly honors, he never coveted public applause. He was an humble, modest servant of Jesus Christ, and his chief ambition was to lead men to a knowledge of the Saviour whom he preached. He was never happier than when laboring as a soul winner in the Master's cause.

Precious gems are cold, dead things; they make men envious and uncomfortable, but they cheer no one, they comfort no one, they help no one. The ministry of our lamented brother, on the contrary, carried sunshine into many lives, brought comfort to many hearts, and dried the tears in many eyes. His memory, th refore, will grow brighter and brighter as the years go by. In his friendships he was faithful and true; he never deceived you; you could always trust him. He held his brethren in affectionate regard, had no jars with them, and was loved by all of them. But the real secret of our brother's power lay in his deep spirituality. He was as guileless as a little child. Like David, he was a man after God's own heart; like Enoch, he walked with God.

No truer man or more devoted and exemplary Christian graced our ranks. No one more fully adorned the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things and exemplified His life and teachings than our brother. In every relation of life he was the same true, trusted and model man and Christian. Brother McKissick was twice married. His first marriage was to Miss Ellen Fountain, on November 27, 1869. His second marriage was to Miss Hester Palston, on August 12, 1872. She, with a large family of children, survives him.

MRS. J. T. KILGO.

By Rev. S. A. Nettles.

Mrs. Catherine Kilgo, after four years of love and service, entered the heavenly home, July 3, 1909. She was born May 4, 1827. At the age of twelve she joined the Methodist Church, and January 3, 1855, she was married to Rev. James T. Kilgo, Sister Kilgo easily ranked among the best women the world has known. Her's was a life of devotion, and faithfully she worked side by side with her noble husband. Of this world's goods they had little, but they had abundantly of God's eternal riches. Five children, three sons and two daughters, were given them, and these were their costly treasures. The spiritual care of their children was their first concern, and then their intellectual care. By sacrifice and close economy each of these children was given a college education. The three sons, James W., John C. and Pierce F., each a Methodist preacher, and the living daughter, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, are worthy products of their love and care and prayers.

Sister Kilgo's life was a beautiful study, and her last years were as a clear sunset from a mountain top. Sweetly and patiently she waited her Father's invitation. Her mind was unclouded. Her faith was clear and strong. Her interest in the Church and her loved ones was unabated, and the love and devotion of her children for their noble mother was sublime. She toiled hard and long and faithfully as a co-worker with God. She improved, to the best of her ability, the talents God had committed to her care. She has heard the "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of thy Lord."

It is an inspiration to contemplate her deeds of love. It is glorious to view such a death. We thank God for such a life.

Her body gently rests beside that of her husband at Parnassus Church, Blenheim Circuit, Marlboro County, South Carolina.

MRS. ADDIE NEWBERRY FARR.

By Rev. J. T. Fowler.

Addie Newberry Farr, daughter of William and Nancy Newberry, was born near Kelton, Union County, S. C., July 18, 1868. When a girl she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and continued a useful member of the same until her death, October 1, 1909.

On December 23, 1885, she was happily married to Rev. John G. Farr, to whom she was indeed an helpmeet.

Of this union there are seven surviving children, four girls and three boys.

MRS. J. B. CAMPBELL.

By Rev. Jno. O. Willson, D. D.

Mrs. Ervenia E. Campbell, daughter of the late Wm. F. Richardson, and widow of the late Rev. James B. Campbell, was born in Marion County, in 1840, and died in Rock Hill in the early part of the present year. From childhood to the end she walked with God. In the itinerant changes she went from the seaboard to the hills of the Piedmont and was so warm-hearted and charming, so gentle and sympathetic, so helpful and unwearying, that her friends are legion. When she fell on sleep hundreds mourned, and were comforted only by the hope of meeting her in the city of God. "Her children arise up and call her blessed;" and so will say all that love a devoted life and a cultured, womanly woman.

MRS. SAMUEL TOWNSEND.

By Rev. Jno. O. Willson, D. D.

Mrs. Samuel Townsend, widow of the late Rev. Samuel Townsend, daughter of John Veal, was born in Columbia, about the year 1820, and departed this life during the present year, in Texas. She was one of the brave pioneers to enter the itinerancy when to be the preacher's wife meant hardship, but not for a moment did she hesitate and wish to turn back. Cheerfully and happily she went where duty called, until her husband fell on sleep; then this Godly woman walked alone and unmurmuring to the end. "A woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised."

MRS. JAMES C. STOLL.

By Rev. Jno. O. Willson, D. D.

Mrs. Mary Stoll, daughter of the late John McCullock, and widow of the late Rev. James C. Stoll, was born in Williamsburg County, about the year 1839, and died during the year 1908, in Chester, S. C. Born to affluence, she gave her heart and hand to a traveling preacher, and God gave her as happy a life as usually falls to any woman. Gentle and sweet in all her ways, she won and held friends, and was a true helpmate to her husband. The end came suddenly, but she was ready, and gladly she entered "into the joys of the Lord."

MRS. W. P. WAY.

By Rev. Jno. O. Willson, D. D.

Mrs. Leila Stockman Way, daughter of Mr. J. H. Stockman, and wife of Rev. W. P. Way, fell on sleep December 10, 1909. She was a bright, winsome woman, a happy, cheerful Christian, a helpful, loving wife. Called away when but a little over one score of years old, it seems a strange providence, but God doth all things well. We shall hold her in tender memory and with all our hearts we sorrow with the bereaved.

MRS. B. M. GRIER.

By Rev. A. N. Brunson.

Mrs. Carrie (Duke) Grier was born near Ridgeway, Fairfield County, South Carolina, and departed this life in the City of Columbia, September 18, 1909. She was the wife of the late Rev. B. M. Grier, of the South Carolina Conference. She was fully equal to the delicate and trying duties encumbered upon an itinerant preacher's wife. During the later years of her life she suffered from the effects of a stroke of paraylsis, but with the increasing helplessness of the passing years she never murmured or complained, but patiently abided the Father's will. She has entered the gates eternal.

MRS. S. A. WEBER.

By Rev. A. N. Brunson.

Mrs. Camilla (Steele) Weber was born at Crawfordsville, Ga., May 17, 1845, and entered into eternal life January 4, 1909. She was the faithful and beloved wife of Dr. Samuel A. Weber, an honored member of the Old Guard of the South Carolina Conference. This happy union was consummated December 27, 1899. She fully exemplified in her life all those Christian graces that magnify and make beautiful noble womanhood. She was faithful in all life's relations. It would be difficult in a short paper to speak fully of her useful and consecrated life, but it is sufficient to say that "she did what she could." The little church at Yorkville will never see her like again. We shall hold her in blessed memory.
